Mint of the United States at Philadelphia,

7th February 1887

Hon. D M. Fox

Superintendent

Sir,

A workman, H. M. Lewis, has been working faithfully in the Sweep cellar since 10th Jan'y 1887, and, as I am informed, has only received a Helper's Wages, $2.00 per day instead of $3.25, which should be the wages in the situation he now occupies, and has occupied since 10th Jan'y 87. I regard the wages of $3.25 per day, for the filthy and unhealthy situation in the Sweep cellar, as quite low.

Very Respectfully yours

Ja H Booth
